

The Way of Our World

Fifteen million golf balls are used in one year.

A war on sororities has been started in California schools.

Lewis Waterman's application for patent on his first fountain pen was filed in 1883.

From the island of Zanzibar comes the world's supply of cloves, there being 5,000,000 trees used there.

Probably the oldest ship afloat is the "Success," a three-masted vessel built of teak wood in Burma in 1790.

The only woman in Scotland who is in sole charge of a church is a recent graduate of Glasgow University.

A $5000 fund has been established in Salem, Ore., to be lent to men who are released from the penitentiary.

The city manager of Kinsley, Kan., is Miss Virena Miller, the only woman in the United States to hold such a post.

The slightest movement will serve to wind up a particularly sensitive watch invented by a watchmaker in England.

A New Jersey woman recently recovered a needle that had been imbedded in her husband's skull since his childhood.

"Hot Shot," a mascot cat on the England, has made twenty-eight trips across the Atlantic, and four around the world.

An athlete is to replace the traditional movie star as king of the rain day celebration to be held this year at Fresno, Cal.

A new process by which a practical milk can be made from the fluid in oysters is being experimented with to prove its commercial value.

Sound travels through the air at the rate of one mile in five seconds. Big Ben can be heard to strike four miles from Westminster.

John P. Wagner, famous baseball player of twenty years ago, is now employed by the Pennsylvania House of Representatives at $7 a day.

A piece of "artificial skull" has been fitted into the head of a workman in Toronto who was seriously injured in an electrical accident.

Thirteen trick and fancy horses including Aviator, famous jumping horse, burned in a box car in which they were being shipped to the west coast.

The owner of what is believed to be the only specimen of white alligator ever captured in Florida, is asking $333.33 per foot for the six-foot gator.

A man bitten by a snake in the engine pit of a roundhouse was awarded $28,000 by the Supreme Court of Nebraska. Railroads are required to keep snakes out of engine pits.

Mrs. Bess Swift of Lamar, Mo., went hungry in jail today while she waited for friends to raise the $200 fine she was assessed for contempt of court.

The problem of saving wayward salmon who stray from their home river waters to die in irrigation ditches and canals is perplexing the Bureau of Fisheries.

The oldest church edifice in New York is said to be old St. Paul's Chapel on lower Broadway, where George Washington attended thanksgiving services.

A Philadelphia street car motor-man was shot and wounded while his car was speeding but the conductor of the car stopped it before any damage was done.

An "English Week" is to be observed in Ljubljana, Yugoslavia, in order to make the middle classes more familiar with English culture and social achievements.

The White River in Colorado recently disappeared. The water had flowed into a hole in the ground, and reappeared three miles away, from a hole in the side of a hill.

A Polish engineer living in Brazil has completed a "wave and air" machine which generates a continuous circular motion and may be used to convert the energy of waves into electricity.

Mayor Broening of Baltimore recently received a letter from the councilor of Nanking, China, stating that Baltimore is a model for city government, and requesting ordinances and city plans.

A turtle a foot long has lately been discovered by members of the anthropological society in Chicago. The turtle has been a fossil for more than 4000 years, as shown by inscriptions carved on the turtle's back.

—AND SOME HUMOR—
"I understand he holds a record of some kind."
"Yes, he's the father of seven, and he once reassembled a Sunday paper in four minutes."

COMMENTS ON LIFE—
Never talk your best in the company of fools.—Chesterfield.
What is so important? Today! What more so? What can be more vital than living, sensing, acting, today! living sanely, safely, helpfully, comfortably, cheerfully?—Dr. Ernest Crutcher.

—AND SOME VERSE—
Frost
What words and spears, what daggers bright,
He arms the morning with! How light
His powder is, that's fit to lie
On the wings of a butterfly!

What milk-white clothing he has made
For every little twig and blade!
What curious, silver work is shown
On wood and iron, glass and stone!

"If you, my slim Jack Frost, can trace
This work so fine, so full of grace,
Tell me," I said, "before I go—
Where is your plump young sister, Snow?"

—W. H. Davies.

W. J. HETZLER
TO WED MRS.
ANNA FROMAN

License Is Taken Out
in St. Louis This Morning

WILL MAKE HOME HERE

Ceremony Is Expected to Take Place Tonight in University City

A marriage license was issued in St. Louis this morning to Mayor W. J. Hetzler of Columbia and Mrs. Anna Froman, head of the voice department at Christian College. It is understood that the wedding was to take place tonight at the home of friends in University City and that the Rev. John W. McIvor of the Second Presbyterian Church was to perform the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hetzler, who are also in St. Louis, were expected to attend the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hetzler will return to Columbia tomorrow.

Mayor Hetzler and his bride will probably not return until the end of the week. They will probably make their home at the mayor's present residence.

Whether or not Mrs. Froman will continue her work at Christian College is not known. It was stated at the office of President Edgar D. Lee this afternoon.

THREE FINED FOR SELLING LIQUOR

Four Receive Sentences on Burglary and Forgery Charges

The Boone County Circuit Court began one of its busiest days of the term this morning. Two penitentiary sentences of two years each, three fines of $500 each, and a six-month and a three-month jail sentence composed the decisions made by the court this morning and late yesterday afternoon.

Thomas McCowan was given a sentence of six months in the county jail when he was found guilty of selling intoxicating liquor yesterday afternoon by a jury composed of the following men: Raymond Estep, R. P. Glenn, Leo Stines, E. J. Douglas, Henry Hall, Joe Boyce, D. L. May, Tom Bryson, Jr., Joe Mayland, Bid Crump, Harry Davis, and Allen Sapp.

After the trial, McCowan pleaded guilty to another charge of selling liquor and was fined $500. Another case that had been filed against him, charging him with the same offense, was dismissed.

Terrill Miller, charged with the sale of intoxicating liquor, withdrew the plea of not guilty and entered the plea of guilty to the charge. He was fined $500.

William Roberts, who was also charged with selling liquor, entered the plea of guilty to the charge and was fined $500. Roberts first entered the plea of not guilty.

Elmer Stapleton withdrew the plea of not guilty and entered the plea of guilty to the charge of forgery and uttering. He was sentenced to two years in the state penitentiary.

Robert Harvey, negro, who was charged with burglary and withdrawing the plea of not guilty, was given a two-year sentence in the state penitentiary. Another charge, of larceny, was dismissed.

Harvey's case was docketed for trial this morning. The jury which had assembled to hear the case was dismissed.

Ever since the approval of funds for the Health Unit for the first half of the year was made early this month, attention has been directed to the question of what decision would be made concerning the training center, since it was explained that the court was not ready to announce this decision at that time.

Resolutions endorsing the training center and petitioning the court for its continued approval had been made.

The first nurses to arrive at the training center came on Jan. 8, 1928. Those coming are required to spend at least one year in county nursing work somewhere in Missouri after leaving.

The group is under the direction of Miss Maud Tollefson, county nurse.

DRURY FACULTY MEMBER DIES
Dr. S. B. Clark Succumbs to a Little Known Disease

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Jan. 22 (U.P.).—Dr. Sereno Burton Clark, 52, professor of classics at Drury College since 1925, died here last night of a rare malady with which he was stricken three weeks ago.

The disease is known as "Addison Disease," named after the physician who discovered it. No cure has been found for it and the disease is rare in the United States.

BURIAL SERVICES ARE HELD
Columbia Pays Last Tribute to James B. Batterson

Columbia paid last tribute yesterday to a man who had been its mayor and for over fifteen years was one of its citizens. Traffic was stopped as the funeral procession for James Batterson went first to the First Christian Church where short services were conducted by the Rev. Carl Agge, and then to the Columbia Cemetery.

University Will Aid in Celebration of Washington's Birthday
The University will co-operate with the local chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution in the celebration of Washington's birthday.

The program will be held in the Auditorium Friday afternoon, Feb. 22, at 4 o'clock. Dr. Howard Jensen, professor of sociology in the University, has been asked to speak.

D. A. R. TO GIVE PROGRAM
University Will Aid in Celebration of Washington's Birthday

The University will co-operate with the local chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution in the celebration of Washington's birthday.

The program will be held in the Auditorium Friday afternoon, Feb. 22, at 4 o'clock. Dr. Howard Jensen, professor of sociology in the University, has been asked to speak.

—W. H. Davies.

The Weather

For Columbia and vicinity: Unsettled and not quite so cold tonight and Thursday; snow probable; lowest temperature tonight above 18 above.

For Missouri: Unsettled tonight and Thursday; snow probable; not quite so cold Thursday and north and west portions tonight.

Shippers forecast: Within a radius of 200 miles of Columbia the lowest temperatures are expected to be about as follows: North 5, East 10, South 10, West 10.

Weather conditions: Yesterday's middle western storm center has advanced to the Atlantic seaboard. It gave a blanket of snow over the Ohio Valley and Lake states. A 50-mile northwest gale 30 below zero cold was still sweeping the Lakes this morning. Not much snow fell in Missouri and adjoining states. The cold wave extends to Oklahoma.

Zero line in Kansas, Missouri; 20 to 30 below Minnesota, Dakota, Canada. Missouri outlook cloudy, moderating slowly, snow probable.

Highest temperature here yesterday was 64; lowest last night, 10.

Weather conditions: Yesterday's middle western storm center has advanced to the Atlantic seaboard. It gave a blanket of snow over the Ohio Valley and Lake states. A 50-mile northwest gale 30 below zero cold was still sweeping the Lakes this morning. Not much snow fell in Missouri and adjoining states. The cold wave extends to Oklahoma.

Zero line in Kansas, Missouri; 20 to 30 below Minnesota, Dakota, Canada. Missouri outlook cloudy, moderating slowly, snow probable.

Highest temperature here yesterday was 64; lowest last night, 10.

Weather conditions: Yesterday's middle western storm center has advanced to the Atlantic seaboard. It gave a blanket of snow over the Ohio Valley and Lake states. A 50-mile northwest gale 30 below zero cold was still sweeping the Lakes this morning. Not much snow fell in Missouri and adjoining states. The cold wave extends to Oklahoma.

Zero line in Kansas, Missouri; 20 to 30 below Minnesota, Dakota, Canada. Missouri outlook cloudy, moderating slowly, snow probable.

Highest temperature here yesterday was 64; lowest last night, 10.

Weather conditions: Yesterday's middle western storm center has advanced to the Atlantic seaboard. It gave a blanket of snow over the Ohio Valley and Lake states. A 50-mile northwest gale 30 below zero cold was still sweeping the Lakes this morning. Not much snow fell in Missouri and adjoining states. The cold wave extends to Oklahoma.

Zero line in Kansas, Missouri; 20 to 30 below Minnesota, Dakota, Canada. Missouri outlook cloudy, moderating slowly, snow probable.

Highest temperature here yesterday was 64; lowest last night, 10.

Weather conditions: Yesterday's middle western storm center has advanced to the Atlantic seaboard. It gave a blanket of snow over the Ohio Valley and Lake states. A 50-mile northwest gale 30 below zero cold was still sweeping the Lakes this morning. Not much snow fell in Missouri and adjoining states. The cold wave extends to Oklahoma.

Zero line in Kansas, Missouri; 20 to 30 below Minnesota, Dakota, Canada. Missouri outlook cloudy, moderating slowly, snow probable.

Highest temperature here yesterday was 64; lowest last night, 10.

Weather conditions: Yesterday's middle western storm center has advanced to the Atlantic seaboard. It gave a blanket of snow over the Ohio Valley and Lake states. A 50-mile northwest gale 30 below zero cold was still sweeping the Lakes this morning. Not much snow fell in Missouri and adjoining states. The cold wave extends to Oklahoma.

Zero line in Kansas, Missouri; 20 to 30 below Minnesota, Dakota, Canada. Missouri outlook cloudy, moderating slowly, snow probable.

Highest temperature here yesterday was 64; lowest last night, 10.

Weather conditions: Yesterday's middle western storm center has advanced to the Atlantic seaboard. It gave a blanket of snow over the Ohio Valley and Lake states. A 50-mile northwest gale 30 below zero cold was still sweeping the Lakes this morning. Not much snow fell in Missouri and adjoining states. The cold wave extends to Oklahoma.

Zero line in Kansas, Missouri; 20 to 30 below Minnesota, Dakota, Canada. Missouri outlook cloudy, moderating slowly, snow probable.

Highest temperature here yesterday was 64; lowest last night, 10.

Weather conditions: Yesterday's middle western storm center has advanced to the Atlantic seaboard. It gave a blanket of snow over the Ohio Valley and Lake states. A 50-mile northwest gale 30 below zero cold was still sweeping the Lakes this morning. Not much snow fell in Missouri and adjoining states. The cold wave extends to Oklahoma.

Zero line in Kansas, Missouri; 20 to 30 below Minnesota, Dakota, Canada. Missouri outlook cloudy, moderating slowly, snow probable.

Highest temperature here yesterday was 64; lowest last night, 10.

Weather conditions: Yesterday's middle western storm center has advanced to the Atlantic seaboard. It gave a blanket of snow over the Ohio Valley and Lake states. A 50-mile northwest gale 30 below zero cold was still sweeping the Lakes this morning. Not much snow fell in Missouri and adjoining states. The cold wave extends to Oklahoma.

Zero line in Kansas, Missouri; 20 to 30 below Minnesota, Dakota, Canada. Missouri outlook cloudy, moderating slowly, snow probable.

Highest temperature here yesterday was 64; lowest last night, 10.

Weather conditions: Yesterday's middle western storm center has advanced to the Atlantic seaboard. It gave a blanket of snow over the Ohio Valley and Lake states. A 50-mile northwest gale 30 below zero cold was still sweeping the Lakes this morning. Not much snow fell in Missouri and adjoining states. The cold wave extends to Oklahoma.

Zero line in Kansas, Missouri; 20 to 30 below Minnesota, Dakota, Canada. Missouri outlook cloudy, moderating slowly, snow probable.

Highest temperature here yesterday was 64; lowest last night, 10.

Weather conditions: Yesterday's middle western storm center has advanced to the Atlantic seaboard. It gave a blanket of snow over the Ohio Valley and Lake states. A 50-mile northwest gale 30 below zero cold was still sweeping the Lakes this morning. Not much snow fell in Missouri and adjoining states. The cold wave extends to Oklahoma.

Zero line in Kansas, Missouri; 20 to 30 below Minnesota, Dakota, Canada. Missouri outlook cloudy, moderating slowly, snow probable.

Highest temperature here yesterday was 64; lowest last night, 10.

Weather conditions: Yesterday's middle western storm center has advanced to the Atlantic seaboard. It gave a blanket of snow over the Ohio Valley and Lake states. A 50-mile northwest gale 30 below zero cold was still sweeping the Lakes this morning. Not much snow fell in Missouri and adjoining states. The cold wave extends to Oklahoma.

Zero line in Kansas, Missouri; 20 to 30 below Minnesota, Dakota, Canada. Missouri outlook cloudy, moderating slowly, snow probable.

Highest temperature here yesterday was 64; lowest last night, 10.

Weather conditions: Yesterday's middle western storm center has advanced to the Atlantic seaboard. It gave a blanket of snow over the Ohio Valley and Lake states. A 50-mile northwest gale 30 below zero cold was still sweeping the Lakes this morning. Not much snow fell in Missouri and adjoining states. The cold wave extends to Oklahoma.

TEMPERATURE
DROPS TO 10
ABOVE, HERE

Snow Likely as Cold
Wave Hits Middle West States

FIVE BELOW IN OMAHA

Government Forecasts
Predict Little Relief
for 36 Hours

The temperature last night went to 10 degrees above zero, according to the U. S. Weather bureau here. This was a drop of 54 degrees from the maximum temperature during the day. The lowest temperature tonight will be about 10 above, and though tonight and tomorrow will not be so cold, snow is probable.

In Kansas City the temperature dropped to 2 above zero yesterday while in St. Louis the lowest temperature was 18 above. The temperature in Springfield dropped to 16 above zero.

A fifty-six mile northwest gale, 20 below zero, in temperature, is sweeping over the Ohio Valley and the Lake states. The cold wave from this storm extends as far south as Oklahoma.

CHICAGO, Jan. 23 (U.P.).—Heavy winds and near-zero temperatures returned to the North and Middle West today.

Several hours of rain, sleet, and frost winds, followed by sudden drops in temperatures left Chicago's streets ice-glazed and hazardous to traffic.

The weather bureau reported the cold wave, sweeping down from Canada, had enveloped Montana, North and South Dakota, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois, and Indiana.

Government forecasts predicted little relief for at least thirty-six hours.

Ice-coated rails were blamed for a wreck on the south shore electric line at Michigan City, Ind., in which five persons were injured. An unidentified woman was killed at St. Paul when she stepped into the path of an automobile during a blizzard.

Carl H. Dehubert, 36, was killed at Rock Island, Ill., in a coasting accident.

OMAHA, Jan. 23 (U.P.).—Coldest weather of winter was experienced here when the thermometer sank to 5 below zero at 4 o'clock this morning. The bulb remained stationary until after 7 p. m.

While the 15-below weather predicted by Forecaster Robins failed to materialize, suffering was intense because of a strong north-west wind which reached a velocity of thirty-three miles an hour last night. The wind had subsided this morning.

No damage was reported as result of the storm. Some trains were on time, others were as much as an hour late. Wire service was interrupted.

The severe cold prevailed only in eastern and central Nebraska, according to reports here. Union Pacific reported 5 below at Central City with zero at North Platte and Sidney and 8 above at Cheyenne.

TO PUBLISH NEGRO WEEKLY
Victor Hicks Is Owner and Editor of "Columbia's Colored Newspaper"

A weekly newspaper, the "Clarion," printed for negroes, will publish its first edition Friday morning. "Columbia's Colored Newspaper" will be the slogan of the paper.

The owner and editor of the paper is Victor L. Hicks, son of Alex Hicks, a grocer in the city for twenty-two years. Victor Hicks has lived in the city all his life. He went to the University of Illinois. Percy M. Freeland is the circulation manager.

The paper will be seven columns in width with eight pages. The news of the paper will be of particular interest to negroes. It will be a local paper with news of the vicinity of Columbia for eighty miles.

The policy of the paper is announced, will be to establish amicable relations between whites and negroes, and to promote better citizenship among negroes.

SCHOOL DELINQUENTS RETURN
Only Seven Have Failed to Comply With Attendance Law

Since the opening of schools in Boone County last September eighty-two children have been reported out of school and now all are back except seven. Mrs. Beatrice Grubbs, school attendance officer, found it necessary to threaten prosecution for non-attendance in only one case.

All children between the ages of 7 and 14 years are required by the state law to attend some school, and every child between the ages of 14 and 16 years, when not regularly employed 8 hours a day in some useful occupation, must attend the entire term.

EXAMS BEGIN AT HICKMAN
High School Second Quarter Finals Start Today

Second quarter examinations began at David H. Hickman High School this morning and will continue through tomorrow and Friday, according to Miss Saldee Stearn, principal. The regular class schedule has been discontinued but will be resumed Monday morning at 8:30 o'clock with the second semester work. Report cards for the first semester will be distributed Tuesday, Jan. 22.

All changes in course schedules and registration for new pupils is being done this week, Miss Stearn said.

Round Table Elects New Member
C. B. Rollins, Sr., has been chosen to membership in the Round Table Club, succeeding Dean J. P. McRae, who is now a resident of California. The resident membership of the club is limited to nineteen. It has two non-resident members—Dean McRae and Dean Isador Lee of Washington University, St. Louis.

Women Voters Hear Nurse
Miss Maud Tollefson spoke about the nurses' training center this afternoon at 2 o'clock at a meeting of the League of Women Voters at the Episcopal Student Center on Ninth Street. It was previously announced that Mrs. F. P. Stephens would speak.

JEFFERSON STUDENTS ENROLL
Five Enter School for Second Semester. It Is Announced

Registration for new pupils is being held this week at the Jefferson High School. Miss J. K. Fyfe, principal, announced that five new students have entered for the second semester. They are: Ruth Roberts, Velma James, Joseph Hutchcraft, Florence Murray, and Nan Elaine Wilkerson.

There will be few changes of schedules next semester, but several changes of student teachers, Mrs. Fyfe said.

Round Table Elects New Member
C. B. Rollins, Sr., has been chosen to membership in the Round Table Club, succeeding Dean J. P. McRae, who is now a resident of California. The resident membership of the club is limited to nineteen. It has two non-resident members—Dean McRae and Dean Isador Lee of Washington University, St. Louis.

Women Voters Hear Nurse
Miss Maud Tollefson spoke about the nurses' training center this afternoon at 2 o'clock at a meeting of the League of Women Voters at the Episcopal Student Center on Ninth Street. It was previously announced that Mrs. F. P. Stephens would speak.

JEFFERSON STUDENTS ENROLL
Five Enter School for Second Semester. It Is Announced

Registration for new pupils is being held this week at the Jefferson High School. Miss J. K. Fyfe, principal, announced that five new students have entered for the second semester. They are: Ruth Roberts, Velma James, Joseph Hutchcraft, Florence Murray, and Nan Elaine Wilkerson.

There will be few changes of schedules next semester, but several changes of student teachers, Mrs. Fyfe said.

DEAN WILLIAMS
IS ON COMMITTEE
Will Help Arrange Press
Congress in Uruguay
in 1930

Dean Walter Williams of the School of Journalism of the University of Missouri has been appointed a member of the National Committee of co-operation for the United States for the Second Pan-American Congress of Journalists to convene at Montevideo, Uruguay, in 1930. The appointment was made by Secretary of State Frank B. Kellogg, who is chairman of the governing board of the Pan-American Union.

The other members of the committee are the presidents of the Associated Press, the International News Service, the United Press Association, the American Newspaper Publishers' Association, the American Society of Newspaper Editors, and the National Editorial Association.

Dean Williams was president of the First Pan-American Congress of Journalists, which met at the Pan-American Union in Washington, in April, 1928.

NATIONAL SCOUT
LEADER IS HERE

Recreational Authority to Hold Model Troop
Meeting Tonight

Charles F. Smith, recreational leader and editor, associated with the Teachers' College of Columbia University, is visiting Columbia to act as representative of the national Boy Scout organization. He is here to help local Scout officials with the work of organization.

A meeting has been arranged for all Scout leaders for tonight at the Women's Gymnasium at 7:30 o'clock, when Smith will conduct a model troop meeting, using the local Scout masters as patrol leaders and their senior patrol leaders as assistant patrol leaders. This group will meet with Smith at 5 o'clock for instruction in their respective duties.

Smith will serve as scoutmaster at the evening meeting.

Games and Recreational Methods, a book for Scout leaders, was written by Smith. The book has a wide circulation and is said to be the best book of its kind available.

For the last twenty years, Smith has been active in Scout work, having served as scoutmaster of a New York troop for this entire period. Recently, he became instructor in scoutmastering, an extension course of Columbia University. He is also editor of Scoutmaster Notes, the basis of this course.

More recently, he has been working for the national Boy Scout organization, doing field work in developing recreational leadership and in assisting the Department of Education in training volunteer leaders.

A luncheon was held at noon today at which Smith discussed with local leaders some of the problems concerning boys.

After his work in Columbia, Smith will go to Kirksville, where he will assist the instructor of the Scouting course in the Northeast State Teachers College.

DONNER TALKS TO
JUNIOR C. OF C.
Assures Members Help
in Maintaining Large
Highway 40 Sign

A. D. Donner, superintendent of the Columbia water and light plant, spoke to the Junior Chamber of Commerce at its dinner meeting at the Tiger Hotel last night.

Mr. Donner assured the Junior Chamber of Commerce that the water and light department would co-operate with them in maintaining the large electric sign on Highway 40. He said that the sign is service once and that the cost of maintaining the sign is $2,200 a year.

A motion was made to extend a vote of thanks to the water and light department for its co-operation in maintaining the sign, which was erected last August. The motion was unanimously carried.

The sign committee made arrangements to collect the remaining unpaid pledges and to solicit new ones in order to finish paying for the sign. Gerald Rodeheaver, Ralph Parks, John Mossman, Frank Wharton, and Glenn Carmichael volunteered to help make the collections. These men will assist F. W. Stewart and E. J. Ward in completing the drive in two days.

George Spencer was appointed to make arrangements for the next meeting. The meeting was the largest one held this year.

JEFFERSON STUDENTS ENROLL
Five Enter School for Second Semester. It Is Announced

Registration for new pupils is being held this week at the Jefferson High School. Miss J. K. Fyfe, principal, announced that five new students have entered for the second semester. They are: Ruth Roberts, Velma James, Joseph Hutchcraft, Florence Murray, and Nan Elaine Wilkerson.

There will be few changes of schedules next semester, but several changes of student teachers, Mrs. Fyfe said.

Round Table Elects New Member
C. B. Rollins, Sr., has been chosen to membership in the Round Table Club, succeeding Dean J. P. McRae, who is now a resident of California. The resident membership of the club is limited to nineteen. It has two non-resident members—Dean McRae and Dean Isador Lee of Washington University, St. Louis.

Women Voters Hear Nurse
Miss Maud Tollefson spoke about the nurses' training center this afternoon at 2 o'clock at a meeting of the League of Women Voters at the Episcopal Student Center on Ninth Street. It was previously announced that Mrs. F. P. Stephens would speak.

JEFFERSON STUDENTS ENROLL
Five Enter School for Second Semester. It Is Announced

Registration for new pupils is being held this week at the Jefferson High School. Miss J. K. Fyfe, principal, announced that five new students have entered for the second semester. They are: Ruth Roberts, Velma James, Joseph Hutchcraft, Florence Murray, and Nan Elaine Wilkerson.

There will be few changes of schedules next semester, but several changes of student teachers, Mrs. Fyfe said.

Round Table Elects New Member
C. B. Rollins, Sr., has been chosen to membership in the Round Table Club, succeeding Dean J. P. McRae, who is now a resident of California. The resident membership of the club is limited to nineteen. It has two non-resident members—Dean McRae and Dean Isador Lee of Washington University, St. Louis.

Women Voters Hear Nurse
Miss Maud Tollefson spoke about the nurses' training center this